COMMUNICATED. THE Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION .- A visit to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon, or last night, would have repaid any one unacquainted with the workings of that institution. It was the New Year's reception, and numbers were present who erjoyed the delightful surprises given them by the ladies in charge.

The rooms were most beautifully decorated, and the observer could not but admit that it was the handiwork of well trained fingers belonging to fairy hands. Upon inquiry it was ascertained that the Misses Aguew and Mrs. G. W. Jamisson, with others, had turned the house into a thing of
